

Red Mountain Facts

Red Mountain Resort has been named one of the Top Ten Resorts of North America by Forbes Magazine, and is quickly becoming one of North America's most sought-after mountain destinations. Choose from 87 runs spread across two stellar mountains that feature everything from wide-open groomers to steep, powder-filled glades. With more than 1,685 skiable acres and 880 metres of vertical terrain serviced by 6 total lifts, there is a lot to explore at Red. The abundant snow, friendly staff and locals, and the short lift lines are just a few reasons why guests fall in love with Red.

Kicking Horse Facts

Surrounded by six national parks, Kicking Horse is as scenic as it is exhilarating. Set in the Purcell Range of the Canadian Rockies, Kicking Horse is known for its fine, dry Purcell “Champagne” Powder and its northeast facing slopes are ideally positioned for retaining snow. The resort thrills skiers and boarders with its 1260m vertical drop. The terrain consists of gentle beginner slopes, long groomed corduroy linking trails, open powder bowls, tight chutes and extreme steeps.
